STAT

Thank you for your letter of 22 August clarifying your desire to serve the Government.

It is regretted that we misinterpreted your letter to Mr. Souers and as a result sent you the forms for application for a Government position.

Your desire to be of service has been made a matter of record in this Agency, and should occasion arise to request your services on a consultant basis we will contact you again.

Your continued interest is appreciated.

Sincerely,

R. H. HILLENKORTTER

Your letter to Mr. Souers dated 11 August relative to your desire to be of service to the Government has been referred to me for action.

At any time you are in Washington, it is suggested that you call my office [redacted] and I shall be glad to make an appointment to see you.

Meanwhile, it would be appreciated if you would complete the enclosed forms for application for employment and Personal History Statements, and return two copies to me. This procedure is necessary before action can be taken by my personnel people in connection with surveying our situation with regard to available vacancies.

Thank you very much for your interest.

Sincerely,
